

Alea Gregg

Advisor, Account Management
Phoenix

Professional Experience

Alea provides integral support to a high-volume occupier centric global portfolio account team, whose clients include Fortune 100 and 500 companies. She serves as an account coordinator for transaction management activities that includes project initiation, negotiation and implementation, prioritization of assignments, and adherence to client-driven priorities, commitments, and milestones.

Education

Alea graduated with Academic Distinction from the University of Arizona, Eller College of Management with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

Contact

602.821.7801 mobile
agregg@cresa.com