

Arlina Anastasiou

Manager, Marketing
Phoenix

Professional Experience

Arlina brings 10 years of real estate and marketing experience to her role as Marketing Manager for the Phoenix office. She is responsible for the high level marketing deliverables at a local level, as well as acts as a liason between the Phoenix office and Cresa's corporate marketing team. As Marketing Manager, her duties include business development support, development and execution of marketing programs, management of collateral materials, public relations and award submissions, website maintenance and social media coordination.

Education Experience

Arlina earned her Bachelor of Science degree at Chapman University in Orange, CA. She majored in Business Administration with a Real Estate Emphasis. She previously earned her real estate license both in California and Washington, and now holds an Arizona real estate license.

Personal Interests

Outside of work, Arlina has a passion for cooking, home decor, and fitness. She loves traveling and spending time with her family and two small dogs, Jaxson and Lucca.
