

Griffin Kibens

Senior Advisor, Transaction Management Phoenix

Professional Experience

Griffin Kibens is a Senior Advisor who serves as an Account Manager on a corporate real estate portfolio team led by Gary Gregg, Executive Chairman, and Tom Birnbach, Vice Chairman of Cresa. With more than 6 years of experience in commercial real estate, Griffin specializes in transaction execution, lease negotiations, and site selection for national occupier clients.

Griffin supports the full life cycle of real estate transactions, from coordinating due diligence and financial analysis to guiding negotiations and final documentation. She works closely with Account Managers, local brokers, and client teams to ensure that every transaction aligns with business objectives, timelines, and market conditions.

Before joining Cresa, Griffin held brokerage roles at CBRE and Mohr Partners, where she supported occupier clients across office, retail and industrial portfolios. Her responsibilities included market analysis, transaction execution, and client coordination. This experience built a strong foundation in corporate real estate strategy and prepared her to manage complex, multi-market portfolios with consistency and care.
