

Jason Malcolm

Senior Vice President
Phoenix

Professional Experience

Jason has been providing real estate consulting services for 20 years. He has exclusively represented occupiers throughout his entire career. Having completed assignments in 24 states, he provides his clients with a valuable perspective and practical understanding of the varying dynamics that exist across the country. Jason has represented clients in a variety of industries. His experience includes strategic portfolio planning, site selection, financial advisory and process management.

Clients

- Robertson Fuel Systems—149,000 SF
- Goodmans Interiors—99,800 SF
- Barron Lighting Group—78,000 SF
- Matrix Medical Group—54,000 SF
- GlobalTranz—70,000 SF
- Fresenius Medical—50,000 SF
- The Manning Group—64,000 SF
- Botanicare —84,000 SF
- WebPT —62,500 SF
- ASML US, Inc. —59,000 SF

Affiliations

Jason has held several board positions on the Scottsdale Active 20/30 Club. He has earned the designation of CCIM, which members are required to complete advanced coursework in financial and market analysis and demonstrate extensive experience in the commercial real estate industry. Jason has completed the Scottsdale Leadership Core Program, which gives participants the knowledge, connections, skills and confidence to take leadership roles in the community.

Education

Jason received his Bachelor of Science degree from Arizona State University, W.P. Carey School of Business, with a focus on Commercial Real Estate.

Contact

602.648.4698 office
480.326.4579 mobile
jmalcolm@cresa.com