Professional Experience

Ashley Snyder is a corporate real estate leader with more than 20 years of experience at Cresa. As a Principal, she serves as the Client Relationship Manager, Partner, and Account Manager on an 18-person corporate real estate portfolio team led by Gary Gregg and Eric Walker. The team manages more than 170 million square feet globally and supports mid-sized private firms and Fortune 500 companies with strategic, scalable portfolio solutions.

Ashley focuses on business development, account implementation, and long-term client relationship management. She guides clients through onboarding and service transitions, ensuring continuity and alignment with strategic goals. Known for her responsiveness and ability to anticipate client needs, Ashley fosters long-term partnerships built on trust, transparency, and proactive communication.

Over her two-decade tenure at Cresa, Ashley has held multiple roles across account management, project management and business development. Her depth of experience and institutional knowledge make her a vital resource to both clients and internal teams, helping ensure every engagement is executed with care, consistency, and client-first focus.
