Professional Experience

Jessika brings 15 years of real estate experience to the Portland office, serving in various capacities over that time. She's skilled at research, marketing, drafting and negotiating contracts, and lease and due diligence review, among many other talents. Furthermore, Jessika has a clear dedication to serving clients, with excellent communication skills and strong production value. Jessika's background in helping investors establish and execute their real estate goals allows her to carefully strategize with clients for the best possible outcome. With Jessika's unique background, she will serve the Portland team as a project manager, guiding clients through the physical project, relocation and move management lifecycle.

Prior to joining Cresa, Jessika has worked in commercial real estate for Marcus & Millichap. She also has experience in residential real estate, having previously worked for Century 21 and Coldwell Banker.

Affiliations

Jessika volunteers her time at Providence Hospital in the Center for Medically Fragile Children.
