

James J. Scancarella

Managing Principal
Cresa New Jersey

Professional Experience

Jim's focus as Managing Principal is on expanding the firm's capabilities throughout New Jersey and developing business nationwide.

Jim's expertise is representing corporate clients in the New Jersey market. His experience includes tenant advocacy for commercial space users across a diverse array of industries including technology, pharmaceuticals, insurance, warehouse users and a multitude of other industries.

Clients

- Kenneth Cole Productions
- PAR Pharmaceuticals
- Audible
- PPI Time Zero
- LiveU
- Orexo US, Inc.
- CoWorx Staffing
- Liberty Mutual

Affiliations

Jim has served on the Boards of numerous charitable organizations, including The Daniel Jordan Fiddle Foundation which focus' on the needs of adolescents and adults with Autism Spectrum Disorder, Pedal for the Puzzle, an organization that raises money for Autism related organizations, and previously involved with assisting Kidsave with their New Jersey Golf Fund Raiser.

Education

Jim received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from University of Delaware.

Contact

201.591.4562 office
201.970.3659 mobile
jscancarella@cresa.com

"Jim understood the challenges in opening a new office and consulted with us on all aspects of the transaction from site selection, pros and cons of each alternative proposed, and negotiating terms and conditions which provided us with an attractive lease rate, flexibility and a great environment for hiring talent."

Robert DeLuca, President
Orexo US, Inc.

