

Karen Slater

Operations Manager Sacramento

Professional Experience

As Operations Manager, Karen facilitates many functions for Cresa in Sacramento. In addition to managing the day-to-day operations of the office, Karen provides a wide range of project and relocation management services for our clients. As such, she has developed tried-and-true models for successful client moves both large and small. Her ability to see the big picture and maintain focus, while not losing track of countless tiny details, gives her the edge to ensure a move comes together on schedule with minimal disruption.
