

Mike Chappell

Principal
Salt Lake City

Professional Experience

Mike Chappell has over 30 years of experience in commercial real estate with expertise in leasing, development, management, acquisitions and dispositions. His knowledge of the dynamic industrial market in Salt Lake City and its surrounding regions is unparalleled. Alternatively, with more than 4 million square feet of office transactions completed for his corporate clients, Mike's experience across the full spectrum of commercial real estate is broad and deep.

As a critical thinker and aggressive negotiator, Mike spends thoughtful time understanding his client's needs, often hearing and solving unaddressed concerns. He leverages Cresa's integrated services to provide holistic solutions. Mike's experience across diverse property types and geographical markets enables him to act as a true problem solver for his clients.
