

Jordan Mannisto

Advisor
Los Angeles

Professional Experience

Jordan specializes in representing global office users to service their real estate needs. His scope of expertise focuses on strategic planning, lease and purchase negotiations, financial analysis, construction management and problem solving all aspects of the real estate transaction. Jordan takes a consultive approach with all of his clients by implementing strategies to optimize long-term cost reduction. Prior to joining Cresa, Jordan worked at Lee and Associates on one of the top performing office brokerage teams nationwide, focused on both tenant and landlord representation as well as business development.

Clients

Jordan has represented national firms such as Beacon Energy, Call the Car, D&B Audiotechnik, FCL Builders, Hyundai Translead, Jamison Services, Kluger Architects, Kollin Altomare Architects, Mental Health America of Los Angeles, and One Up Inc.

Education

Jordan received his B.S. degree in Kinesiology from the University of Houston while also competing as a two-sport athlete with a full scholarship on the baseball and football teams.

Contact

818.312.1489 mobile
jmannisto@cresa.com
BRE #01992841