

Lindy Pearson

Advisor, Client Relations
San Fernando Valley • Los Angeles

Professional Experience

Lindy Pearson represents companies throughout the San Fernando and Conejo Valleys, helping them find space to run their business more efficiently. She serves corporate clients in a variety of fields including office, R&D, manufacturing and warehouse. Companies hire Cresa to lower their occupancy costs, find and negotiate leases, or renew existing leases to ensure landlord profits are minimized. Lindy is responsible for all of the business development efforts for the Cresa Woodland Hills office including sponsorships, events and networking activities.

Lindy is a native of the San Fernando Valley. After taking some time off to raise her children, she joined Cresa along with her husband Rick Pearson. Together they have over 25 years of experience.
