

Rick Dames

Managing Principal St. Louis

Professional Experience

Rick is Managing Principal of the St. Louis office of Cresa and a former member of Cresa’s Board of Directors. His primary responsibility is to provide comprehensive, multi-disciplined real estate advisory services to businesses and institutions. He has led multiple portfolio assignments providing strategic consulting, transaction management, project management and administrative services. He has a diversified background in multiple property types and has been involved in the development of office/warehouse buildings, office buildings, call centers and technical facilities for numerous high profile companies.

Clients

- Enterprise Holdings
- Wells Fargo Advisors
- PLZ Aerospace
- Lewis Rice
- Greensfelder
- Missouri Society of CPAs
- Spire
- The Daniel and Henry Co.
- Weekends Only
- St. Louis Trust
- Rung Foundation
- Fox Sports

Affiliations

Rick previously served on the Board of Trustees at Villa Duchesne Oak Hill School and St. Louis Community College.

Education

Rick attended Saint Lous University in St. Louis earning a Bachelor of Science in Accounting. Additionally, he attended the University of Bordeaux in France, earning a B.S. in French. He is a Cerified Public Accountant and a licensed Broker-Officer in the State of Missouri.

Contact

314.785.7605 office
rdames@cresa.com