

Jamie Grossman, MBA

Managing Principal, Broker

Professional Experience

As Managing Principal of the Cresa Toronto, Jamie has grown the company to become one of Canada's largest occupier focused commercial real estate companies. Under Jamie's leadership, Cresa Toronto provides fully integrated services including workplace strategy, transaction management, interior design, and project management services to office, industrial, and retail occupiers. Jamie prides himself on being a business builder with a keen focus on culture. Jamie also works alongside his team to service clients, many with whom have been clients since beginning his career in 2019.

Clients

- 3M
- Exchange Solutions
- HomeEquity Bank
- IMCO
- Mazda
- Pepsi
- Procom
- Sony Music
- Top Hat

Education

Jamie holds a Bachelor of Applied Arts, Economics - Western University, a Master of Business Administration - Schulich School of Business, York University, and is a licensed broker through the Real Estate Council of Ontario.

Affiliations

Jamie is active in his community and serves on a number of Boards. Having served as the former Chair of Leadership Sinai – part of the Sinai Health Foundation and a former member of the Artscape Board, Jamie is a Founding Member of Baycrest@Home, a Venture Sinai member, sits on the Mount Sinai Classic Golf Tournament committee and coaches youth hockey.

Contact

416.862.2670

jgrossman@cresa.com

416.402.1430