

Stacey Litwin-Davies

Principal, Consulting
Toronto

Professional Experience

As a Principal, Stacey is responsible for consulting services. This includes research, strategy, advocacy and advisory for clients in the areas of the future of work, change management, remote and home working, transformation, and related services.

Stacey brings over 30 years of experience working on real estate strategy projects for corporate occupiers, real estate developers, landlords and public sector organizations, serving clients across a broad spectrum of industries.

Clients

- Procom
- Home Equity Bank
- Central Toronto Youth Services
- Lumenus Community Services
- Bloom Burton
- London Hydro

Education

Stacey holds a Bachelor's in Education degree from McGill University, a Bachelor's in Design in Interior Architecture from OCAD and has completed Architectural Association Graduate Studies. Stacey also has a Prosci® Change Management Certification.

Contact

416.847.6237 office
416.648.8479 mobile
sdavies@cresa.com