

Sean Hoehn

Managing Principal, Sales Representative Toronto

Professional Experience

As a Managing Principal and equity owner of Cresa Toronto, Sean leads the industrial division in the Toronto office. His responsibilities include the development of best practices to support the firm's ongoing commitment to excellence in servicing the needs of corporate users of space. He has also been instrumental in the training and development of many of the firm's most successful advisors, providing expert guidance and mentorship.

Sean has strong market knowledge and experience in both industrial and office properties, with highly developed negotiating skills and an appreciation of the value to be achieved through even the smallest details of a lease. Sean has successfully negotiated over 500 transactions throughout North America, with values surpassing a billion dollars.
