

Ross Moore

Senior Vice President Vancouver

Professional Experience

Ross is Managing Broker of the Vancouver office, helping lead the growth and expansion of the Cresa office in one of North America's top-rated cities. His focus remains being the occupier representative of choice in the Province of British Columbia, with a special emphasis on Vancouver. He has an unwavering approach to providing best in class service, professionalism and a never ending commitment to deliver trusted, insightful and meaningful counsel to his clients no matter the size or scope.

Clients

- Lendified Technologies
- Wellington-Altus Private Wealth
- National Concrete Accessories
- Capcom Game Studio
- Wishart Law
- Hudson Resources
- Stirling Law
- Oroco Resources
- Bank of Canada

Affiliations

Ross is a member of the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, both as a Managing Broker and Licensee, and the Urban Land Institute - British Columbia (Founding Chairperson).

Education

Ross received his B.A. degree in Economics from the University of British Columbia followed by his Investment Analyst accreditation from the UK Society of Investment Analysts, now the CFA Society United Kingdom.

Contact

604.628.0522
rmoore@cresa.com

“I had the good fortune of working with Ross as Pottinger Bird began its search for new space. We were on a very tight schedule and Ross made us a priority as he addressed our needs in a speedy, efficient and professional manner.

Virginia Bird, Principal
Pottinger Bird