

Lauren N. Rizzo

Senior Vice President

Professional Experience

Lauren provides occupier advisory services to local, regional and global clients and creates comprehensive strategies to maximize flexibility and create work environments that promote productivity, innovation and collaboration while minimizing cost and business disruption.

She began her career as co-owner and creative director for Whitehall Media Productions in Westfield, New Jersey, where she was responsible for account management, operations and brand strategy. Prior to Cresa, Lauren managed a portfolio of properties within the Washington, DC, metropolitan area with a focus on managing leasing plans and development.

Affiliations

DCA Live, Rising Star of Real Estate 2018

Education

Lauren attended John Cabot University in Rome, Italy, where she received her Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a minor in History.

Contact

202.628.0300 office
lrizzo@cresa.com