

Mindy W. Saffer, LEED AP

Managing Principal
Washington, DC

Professional Experience

Mindy W. Saffer, LEED AP, started her career in commercial real estate in 1986 working in an architecture firm designing office space for occupiers. In 1999, Mindy became a real estate advisor in a local tenant representative-only real estate firm. Mindy joined Cresa's Washington, DC office as a Managing Principal in 2012. She specializes working with nonprofit organizations and is Managing Principal of Cresa's Nonprofit Practice Group.

Clients

- State Services Organization
- The Internet & Television Association
- Save the Children
- Feeding America
- American Financial Services Association
- Winrock International
- Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids
- International Center for Research on Women
- American Wind Energy Association

Affiliations

Mindy holds a lifetime accreditation from the US Green Building Council as a leader in energy and environmental design. She serves as board chair of the Finance and Administration Roundtable and is a Finance and Business Operations council member for ASAE: The Center for Association Leadership. Additionally, Mindy is a member of: the Commercial Real Estate Brokers Association of Washington, DC; the Realtors Multi-Million Dollar Leasing Club; and the alumni associations of the University of Maryland and John Hopkins University, respectively.

Education

After receiving a Bachelor of Science in Textile Marketing from the University of Maryland, Mindy obtained a Masters of Science degree in Marketing from John Hopkins University.

Contact

202.628.0300 office
msaffer@cresa.com