

Sam Abramson

Vice President
Washington, DC

Professional Experience

Sam acts as a real estate advisor to some of Washington, DC's most exciting companies, spanning from start-ups to non-profits to law firms. He leverages his in-depth market knowledge and quantitative background to guide his clients through strategic real estate decisions and continuously advocate for their best interests. Sam joined Cresa in April 2018 after spending 3 ½ years at Avison Young and is a native of the DC region.

Affiliations

Sam serves as a Committee Member for the Alzheimer's Association in Washington, DC and has previously volunteered as a youth lacrosse coach for various organizations throughout the Washington, DC area. He has also spent time as a volunteer for DC Central Kitchen and Martha's Table.

Education

Sam graduated from Dickinson College in 2012 and received his Bachelor of Arts in International Business and Management. He was also a four-year member of its varsity lacrosse team.

Contact

202.628.0300 office
sabramson@cresa.com