

Lynda Schroer

Managing Principal

Workspace Planning, Design & Support

Professional Experience

Lynda's ability to build strong relationships and lead her teams effectively is at the core of her success. She thrives on collaborating with diverse talents and strengths to get the most from every member of her team. Deeply dedicated, Lynda is the driving force that directs our occupancy planning and move management projects. Lynda has held numerous positions and managed countless projects throughout the course of her career, each with its own unique obstacles. It's because of this comprehensive industry experience that Lynda is able to bring clarity to the most complex challenges. Her expertise includes strategic and corporate facilities planning, occupancy planning, interior design, project management, relocation management, commercial office furniture, contract facilitation and leading A&E teams.

Clients

- Lockheed Martin
- Wells Fargo
- Western Union
- Xcel Energy
- Twitter
- Silicon Valley Bank

Affiliations

International Facility Management Association (IFMA)
Executive Real Estate Roundtable (ERER)
National Council for Interior Design Qualification (NCIDQ) - Certificate #016030
Green Building Certificate Program, Colorado State University

Education and Technical Skills

MBA, Emphasis in Real Estate, University of Denver
B.S., Interior Design, Minor in Construction Management, Colorado State University

Contact

303.860.0990 x 16 office
lschroer@cresa.com