

Scott Stone

Managing Principal San Francisco

Professional Experience

Scott Stone has been a Managing Partner of the East Bay and San Francisco Cresa offices since 2012. Prior to that, he was a Partner at a Bay Area based boutique firm, Aegis Realty Partners based in Oakland. Scott has over two decades of commercial real estate experience. Scott is recognized as an industry leader and market expert negotiating over one billion dollars worth of real estate deals. Scott is 100% focused on tenant representation. He prides himself on his creativity, responsiveness, ability to leverage his market knowledge and putting the client's needs first. Scott has extensive experience in a variety of industries including, technology, biotechnology, professional services and asset dispositions. Scott's clients appreciate his ability to coach and guide them through the complex process involved in planning, transacting and implementing a facilities solution for their firm. Scott is the proud father of two daughters and enjoys golf, biking and the Oakland food scene.

- > Cresa San Francisco, Managing Principal
- > Aegis Realty Partners, Partner
- > Compuserve, Executive Vice President
- > IBM, Account Executive

Affiliations

- > Claremont Country Club, Board of Directors, (2009-2013)
- > First Tee Oakland, Board of Directors (2011-2013)
- > Cresa Cares (2012-Present)

Education

B.A., Business Administration, University of California, Santa Barbara, 1989

Contact

415.394.1023 dd
510.593.4002 cell
sstone@cresa.com
BRE#01230051