

David McRae

Managing Principal Cresa Nashville

Professional Experience

David McRae is one of the founding principals of the Nashville, Tennessee office. Mr. McRae has been responsible for the leasing and marketing of over 10 million square feet of commercial space with lease values over $900,000,000.

Prior to his affiliation with Cresa, Mr. McRae was a principal and founder of the Nashville office of Newmark Knight Frank. Mr. McRae has been recognized by various trade organizations, including the National Association of Industrial and Office Properties and the Nashville Business Journal (NBj) as a “Heavy Hitter” in commercial real estate. He is consistently recognized as a top Tenant Representative by the NBj and the CoStar Group.

Clients

Mr. McRae’s notable lease transactions include numerous headquarters negotiations. His clients are among some of Nashville’s most prominent companies including:

- CoreCivic
- Gresham Smith
- Cogent HMG
- Eco Energy
- CapStar Bank
- WEX
- Corizon
- ComCast
- SVMIC
- Brookdale
- VACO
- NASBA
- SpecialtyCare

Mr. McRae has extensive law firm practice expertise involving lease negotiations for:

- Adams & Reese
- Lewis Thomason
- Neal & Harwell
- Parker Lawrence Ford & Harrison
- Gideon Cooper Essary
- Gullett Sanford
- Corley Henard
- Cornelius & Collins

Education

- Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Alabama.

Contact

615.887.1709 cell
615.250.3341 dd
dmcrae@cresa.com

www.cresa.com/nashville

Affiliations

Mr. McRae has served as vice president, chairman of the economic and community development committee and was a founding director for the Greater Cool Springs Chamber of Commerce.

He has also served on the Board of Directors for NAIOP Nashville and the Hillwood Country Club.