Cresa Minneapolis promotes Ashley Moen to Senior Advisor

Minneapolis, MN. (JUNE 8, 2015) – Cresa Minneapolis, Inc. is pleased to announce Ashley Moen has been promoted to Senior Advisor. In her new role, she will continue leading and providing exceptional real estate advice and service to our clients. She is known for her ability to manage multiple projects efficiently, and excels at building rapport with her clients. In addition, she is an active Board Member with Minnesota Commercial Real Estate Women (MNCREW) which supports the development and leadership of women in the commercial real estate industry.

“Ashley’s expertise and passion for service excellence have greatly benefited clients and have made her an integral member on our Cresa Minneapolis team” said Tom Sexton, Managing Principal.

Ashley received a Bachelor of Science in Real Estate from St. Cloud State University. She is a past President of the St. Cloud State University Real Estate Alumni Association.
